Three Die As Train Hits Car

Mo-Pac Diesel
Crashes Into
Car Near Natalia

By E. H. Whittington
NATALIA—Three Kelly Air Force civilian workers were killed Monday morning at about 6:45. One man was killed and two others were injured. One man was killed and another was seriously injured.

Killed instantly were Rupert Elgin Ferguson, 51, of Natalia and George E. Pentecost, 58, of Devine. H. D. Underwood of Natalia died Monday night at a San Antonio hospital from injuries sustained in the wreck. According to statements made by Drs. Joyce of Devine and Peters of San Antonio, Mrs. Elizabeth Ballard of Natalia was seriously injured.

The car, a 1950 model Ford, was traveling about 140 feet down the grade-way and was badly dented.

According to the statement of George Herbert Lynn, the car stopped before reaching the track, evidently was left in gear.

The driver, Mr. Underwood, must have let his foot slip off the clutch and the car jumped in front of the oncoming train.

Rupert Ferguson was a retired army man having served in the Air Force. He began as a private and rose to major. He was serving Spain at the outbreak of World War II. He is a member of The American Legion, Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star. Mr. Ferguson died with the grade of master sergeant in October, 1948. He was employed in the air inspector's office at Kelly Field.

Mr. Pentecost, a retired minister, served as pastor of the Community Church in Natalia at one time.

Mr. Underwood, a regular passenger, stayed at home Monday to help the family laundry.

Complete details may be obtained from Postmaster Filleman at the Hondo post office.

CRASH CLAIMS THREE LIVES—Two persons were killed instantly and a third was fatally injured when a Missouri Pacific diesel freight struck this 1950 model automobile 1/2 mile from Natalia Monday morning at about 6:45. Front man dead were Rupert Elgin Ferguson, 51, of Natalia, and George E. Pentecost, 58, of Devine. H. D. Underwood, driver, died Monday night at a San Antonio hospital, and Mrs. E. I. Ballard was seriously injured.

It is believed that Underwood, while parked near the crossing, attempted to back farther away and shifted the gears into second instead of reverse by mistake.

Persons who have not had an X-ray made in the past two years, have been in contact with someone having tuberculosis or who desire a check-up are urged to take advantage of the drive.

X-rays will be made free of charge and will take but a few seconds. Results will be kept strictly confidential.

Girl Hurt As Mower
Sends Metal Flying

By E. H. Whittington

NATALIA—Little Mary Francis Maney, age 4, was painfully injured in a strange accident that occurred at her home Wednesday afternoon.

She was sitting on an old discarded mail-pouch rack directly behind the post office building, watching her father, Johnny Maney, mow the lawn with a power mower. The machine picked up a piece of metal and hurled it with a terrific force, striking Mary Francis on the elbow and glancing off, going through the post office window, and lodging in the assorting rack of the rural carrier.

Six stitches were necessary to repair the cut in the child's arm. She is doing nicely at this time.

Competition Moves In

Salvation Army Starts Drive

after failing to get their credentials approved by the committee.

Hayt says that the Salvation Army now just makes one drive in a community a year, and the one being conducted in Medina County will be the last until the drive next year. It is a common practice for other groups posing as the Salvation Army to enter a town just before the annual drive, and to make drives of their own during the year.

The Salvation Army has been forced to abandon the tambourine and change its uniform so it will not be confused with the imposers," Hayt explained. The official collection container has been changed to a small red box like one being used at the Hondo National Bank, according to Hayt.

Letters have been sent out to post office box holders, and solicitors are working in connection with the annual drive. Persons who have not been individually contacted and want to make contributions to the Salvation Army may send money or checks to J. H. Burgin, treasurer of the Medina County service unit, at Hondo.

Nearly 36 Years
Of Publication
Will End June 1st

The LaCoste Ledger has been purchased by The Hondo Anvil Herald, according to an announcement made here by publisher William E. Berger. The last issue of The Ledger is being published today, May 25, 1951, closing almost 36 years of publication under the ownership of John C. Biediger, who is retaining his printing business.

Starting June 1, 1951, subscribers to The Ledger will receive The Anvil Herald, which is expanding its news and advertising coverage to include in more detail the Medina river valley area. All subscribers who have been taking both papers will have their subscription extended to The Herald sufficiently to give them all the time they have coming. Those who are taking only The Ledger will receive The Herald for the same length of time.

The Anvil Herald was founded in 1886 in Castroville, as The Castroville Anvil. It was moved to Hondo in 1903 by Fletcher Davis, who purchased The Hondo Herald in 1903 and renamed the paper The Anvil Herald. Mr. Davis sold his paper in 1946, and it is now published by William E. Berger of Hondo.

Dance Given May 16 To Honor Graduates

Kay Laake and Mike Larkin, who are looking forward to graduation from Hondo High School in the near future, were honored with a dance Wednesday, May 16 at 8 P.M., in the St. John's parish hall. The dance was given by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Laake and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Larkin.

The centerpiece on the table consisted of a miniature boy and girl dressed in blue cap and gown, and was surrounded by blue and white flowers. Tiny diplomas tied with blue ribbons were used as favors. Several pictures were taken.

Refreshments of assorted sandwiches, pickles, potato chips, fritters, cookies, and punch were served.

Reports were made at the meeting of St. John's Society on May 16 by the various chairmen attending the workshop of the N. C. C. W. in San Antonio recently.

Members of the Society gathered 300 pounds of clothing including shoes for the needy of the parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe. The sisters of the school will distribute the clothing.

It was decided to decorate another section of the parish hall and several members volunteered to help; some donations were received.

A discussion was held regarding the annual celebration which is to take place on June 24.

Hostesses were Mrs. Ralph Jones, Mrs. Charles Hubbard, Mrs. Eugene Hueser, Mrs. Phil Jagge, and Mrs. James Hubertus.

YESTERYEAR

TEN YEARS AGO

Ferd Louis Rothe of D'Hanis was presented a medal for being the best drilled cadet of the military cadets at St. Mary's University.

The American Farmer is the highest degree in Future Farmer work. Only one boy per 1,000 may become an American Farmer. He must have been out of school for one year, have a good farming program and show outstanding leadership.

Albert Saathoff served as Area representative for National FFA Officer Candidate. He will have 8 to 10 other boys in the state to defeat if he qualifies as state candidate for National FFA Officer. State and National checking committees must approve his application before he can receive the American Farmer Degree.

All these degrees are awarded at the National FFA Convention in Kansas City, Mo.

Charles Winkler and James Wendland had their applications checked and approved by the area checking committee Saturday. Charles is also applying for the Farm Mechanics award. This award is made to boys who become State Farmers and who have done outstanding work in farm mechanics. Charles application will go as an alternate to the state checking.

Some of the activities Charles has done the past four years to qualify are: 1. built tile double-car garage; 2. welding two tracks together for a rolling door on garage; 3. built bin in laying henhouse; 4. built undercarriage for farm 4-wheel trailer; 5. built concrete walks at home; 6. built a cattle guard; and 7. moved machinery shed.

James Wendland went to A. & M. College Saturday to take a test for a college scholarship next year.

Lloyd's Letter
LLOYD M. BENTSEN, JR.

WASHINGTON—The citizens of the United States, during this emergency, are being called on for sacrifice and unity. Yet, it is apparent that the chief architect of our foreign policy, Secretary of State Acheson, is a man in whom the people have lost confidence. The Congress and the President can expect little unity of support under such circumstances.

Despite statements to the contrary, there has been no consistent, realistic policy in Asia.

On January 12, 1950, less than six months before Korea, Secretary Acheson said in a speech at the National Press Club, ". . .

(the United States) defense perimeter runs along the Aleutians to Japan and then goes to the Ryukyu to the Philippine Islands. . . . So far as the military security of other areas in the Pacific is concerned, it must be clear that no person can guarantee these areas against military attack."

This defense line did not include Korea. The obvious interpretation for North Koreans and Russians alike was that South Korea was wide open to attack. Within less than six months, the United States was fighting in Korea, beyond the United States defense line as drawn by Acheson.

The decision to oppose aggression in Korea was a bold move to call Russia's bluff. It was made with the full knowledge that it could result in immediate all-out global war. Our armed forces were put out on a limb in Korea for a principle with realization of the stakes, but now we appear to be sawing the limb off behind our troops.

If this policy of fighting with one hand tied behind our back, without hope of victory, attrition without foreseeable end, persists, we shall soon see what it will do for those moral principles it was supposed to vindicate. Now, with over 60,000 American casualties, we deny our airmen the right to fly over the Communist sanctuary in Manchuria, the Navy isn't allowed to blockade China's ports to deny materials to their war machines, we refuse to use Chinese Nationalists in Korea to supplement our troops. Why? Because the State Department says it might precipitate global war. If this be true and if we are not prepared to measure up to the risks of that test, then obviously the primary decision to go into Korea was made with insufficient consideration of the possible consequences.

This risk was inherent in the original decision to go into Korea—it was assumed then. This fear of a global war is a justifiable one. But certainly, the chances of precipitating it were just as apparent on the initial move into Korea. The spectre of Russia attack will be with us so long as the men in the Kremlin follow the teaching of Lenin. Too, if there is one thing Munich should have taught a free people, it is that peace purchased by appeasement is a sham. Dictator nations strike only when they think they can win and provocations are merely their artificial excuses for aggression.

If the Russians have not already decided upon war with the West, a full scale effort to bring victory in Korea is not going to bring them in. If the Russians have decided to wage war against the United States, then they will create or accept the provocation which best suits their timetable.

In short, it looks to me as though those who dictate our foreign policy or panic, went charging in with Old Glory waving high, but somewhere in route swapped her for an umbrella.

The people demand and deserve a Secretary of State who will support and aggressively work to sell to the United Nations a decisive and consistent course to end the bloody frustration in Korea. Day after day our young men fall in Korea only to have others replace them. We in Texas understand neither the wars of attrition or stalemate, we do understand victory and such we must have.

Yet, in this time of emergency, the Secretary of State is a man who has lost the confidence of the people. A man who let his personal feelings take precedence over the responsibilities of his office to profess friendship for the convicted perjurer, Alger Hiss, a member of the Communist Party which seeks to destroy us. The results, Acheson's future actions are mired in the morass of public suspicion.

The decisions which chart the course of our ship of state through the troubled waters ahead are not easy ones—they should not be complicated by the personality of a man who, rather than inspiring confidence and helping mold public opinion, is an irritant to a foreign policy that should once again rise above party politics.

Mr. Acheson should be retired.

UNCLE JAKE SAYS:

Effen youse 'spects you 'thority to be 'specte youse mus' fust be sho' hit am 'spetabale!

SO PLAIN HE WHO RUNS MAY READ

The following question and answer series, clipped from the Congressional Record where they had been inserted by Wisconsin Representative Lawrence Smith while couched in a facetious vein, voices some unpalatable truths in such a simple, straight to the point manner as to make them understandable to all. Read them—and think:

Mr. Speaker, I am including as part of my remarks a series of questions that appeared in a recent issue of the Milwaukee Sentinel:

Question. Is it true that the United States is at war?

Answer. Yes the United States is at war, fighting for the United Nations in Korea.

Question. What is the United States?

Answer. It is hard to say. The United States used to be an independent Nation, but now it seems to be only a fragment of the United Nations.

Question. What is the United Nations?

Answer. The United Nations is an expensive, socialistic and impracticable scheme of world government.

Question. Expensive? Who pays for it?

Answer. You do, if you are an American citizen.

Question. Well, if Americans pay for the United Nations do not Americans run the United Nations?

Answer. No, indeed. The United Nations runs the United States.

Question. Is that not a funny situation, that we let somebody else run our affairs and we pay the bills?

Answer. It is very funny. The Socialists in Europe and the Communists in Russia are laughing at their shaggy heads off.

Question. What is it going to cost us?

Answer. Who knows? Except that it will bankrupt us.

Question. Well, do we get anything out of it?

Answer. Sure; We get foreign wars to fight alone, as in Korea.

Question. Where is Korea?

Answer. About 7,000 miles away on the coast of Asia.

Question. Then why are we fighting a foreign war in Korea?

Answer. Because the White House, the State Department and the United Nations arranged it.

Question. What does Congress think about that?

Answer. Under the New Deal, Congress has no right to think.

Question. What do free American citizens think about it?

Answer. Under the New Deal, there are no free American citizens; this is a nation of taxpayers nothing else.

Question. Have these taxpayers anything to say about our foreign policies and our fighting United Nations wars?

Answer. Certainly not. Our State Department takes care of all that; and see what it is doing. It has already put us in the Korean War, and with the help of the United Nations it will never run out of foreign wars for us to fight.

Question. How did the State Department get us into war in Korea?

Answer. Ask Harry Truman and Dean Acheson and Owen Lattimore. Why do you employ experts unless you want them to expert?

Question. Isn't it their business to keep us out of wars?

Answer. Ask them.

Question. What is the war in Korea going to cost us anyway?

Answer. Ask Truman, or Acheson. Apparently it is going to cost us our Regular Army and Marine Corps. Then in making a new Army we will be in one awful fix. But why bother about that? Haven't you got Truman and Acheson and Lattimore?

Question. Apparently we are in a mess?

Answer. We are.

Question. Maybe we should do something about the State Department?

Answer. Should we? What do you suggest? And how about the White House, too?

The questioner might have continued in the same vein and answered that, seeing that Truman, at the behest of the United Nations, has forced our country into an un-declared war—the prosecution of which is violative of the law of custom among civilized nations and beyond the protection of civilized usage—has exceeded his authority under the constitution and should be treated as any other lawbreaker.

Under the Constitution the President can only recommend a declaration of war; it is the prerogative of Congress—and Congress only—to declare it.

Not for firing MacArthur, or his other blunders, but for usurping powers not legally his, should not Truman—be impeached?

WILBUR SHAW, AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DRIVER, DRIVES NEW 1951 CHRYSLER—REPORTS TO YOU ON REVOLUTIONARY FIREPOWER ENGINE AND HYDRAGUIDE POWER STEERING

Here are Wilbur Shaw's reactions—in his own words—as taken down by a recording machine in the car:

"The '51 Chrysler has it! With this new engine and power steering, the first on any U.S. car, it's a whale of an automobile."

"I'm completely bowled over by the ease of steering!"

"This steering combined with the automatic transmission . . . is the nearest thing to an automatic pilot for a car I can possibly imagine."

"This engine . . . I can't get over the amount of power and snap in this engine . . . it's incredible!"

"I drove 111 miles with the feeling I had expended no more effort than in driving around the block."

"When Mrs. Shaw drove, her comments just about squared with mine. Here's what she thinks of the 1951 Chrysler . . ."

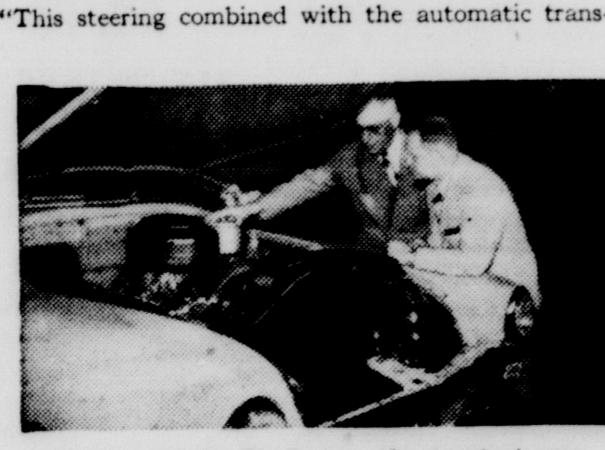

Mrs. Shaw: "At first I could hardly believe the ease with which I could turn the wheel. That's important . . . especially in the summertime."

"Often after I have parked a car in the average parking space, I feel I should taxi home, shower and get dressed again. But with Hydraguide Power Steering I parked it with one hand. It practically drives itself."

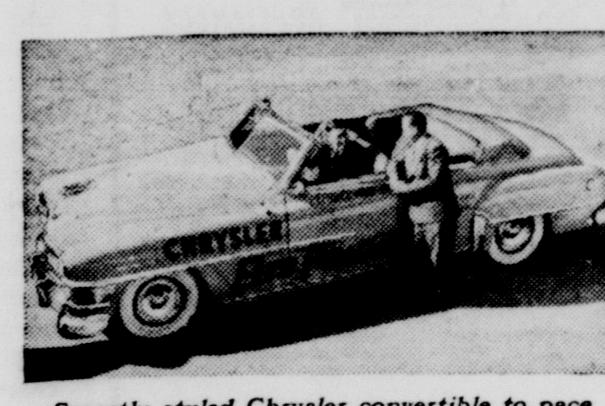

Wilbur Shaw: "It's hard to describe this new Chrysler without going off the deep end . . . it has it in every department."

"In fact, I think so much of this car, I've selected it as Pace Car of the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race!" (Mr. Shaw's comments are reprinted through the courtesy of Popular Science Magazine.)

Wake Island Report

A HIGHLIGHT of the current Truman-MacArthur controversy is the New York Times story summarizing the conversations between the two men at Wake Island.

Because the New York Times story had the earmarks of being leaked out by the White House, some MacArthur proponents have challenged it, while MacArthur states that no records were made of the conversations on Wake Island.

In view of this controversy, the Washington Merry-Go-Round's account of the Wake Island conference, published on Jan. 23, some months prior to the Times' April 21 account, may be significant. For the President can hardly be accused of any partiality toward this writer except in his choice of cuss words.

Writing at that time — three months before the Truman-MacArthur controversy — I reported that:

1. MacArthur was so sure of victory he promised General Bradley that he would transfer one full division to Europe.
2. MacArthur assured the President the Chinese would not intervene.
3. MacArthur expected to get his troops back to the United States by Christmas.

4. Because of the certainty of victory, much of the conference was devoted to plans for reconstructing Korea.

5. Highlight of the Wake Island meeting was the brilliant conversation of one man. MacArthur completely dominated the conversation.

What They Said

Because the Wake Island conference now appears to be playing such an important part in the Truman-MacArthur controversy, the salient portions of my Jan. 23 Wake Island column follow:

The President of the United States flew halfway around the world to confer with General MacArthur, yet aside from a few conversational pleasantries, nothing has been published regarding what happened.

The direct talks between MacArthur and President Truman took place with no one else present; no stenographic notes were taken. It is next to impossible, therefore, to report accurately what happened. Furthermore, the stenographic notes made of the more extended conversation between Truman, MacArthur, General Bradley, and the other military men are still so secret that each copy is numbered.

Home by Christmas

MacArthur assured Truman that he could "finish the job in North Korea" in a short time. According to the stenographic notes he said:

"I hope to be able to have the 8th army back in Japan by Christmas. I may be able to send a convoy into Pyongyang immediately."

At this point, President Truman asked: "What about Chinese intervention?"

MacArthur's reply was: "They could have intervened earlier when it would have been decisive, but that time has passed. We are no longer fearful of their intervention. Although there are several hundred thousand along the Yalu river, it is not likely that they could cause us much trouble."

MacArthur's advice on the future of Korea was: "We should turn Korea over to the Koreans as quickly as we can and get out as quickly as we can."

Troops to Europe

At one point, Gen. Omar Bradley asked whether MacArthur could make any troops available for Europe in the next two months.

MacArthur replied: "Yes, I think a division can be made available early in 1951."

Bradley also remarked that he hoped MacArthur wouldn't have the same trouble he had with American pilots in Europe shooting up railroad bridges that were needed later for rehabilitation.

"I have the same trouble," MacArthur replied. The stenographic notes show laughter at this point.

Only other laughter came when John Muccio, U.S. ambassador to Korea, proposed using sound trucks for propaganda purposes to sell democracy to the Korean people.

MacArthur Merry-Go-Round

The Foreign Minister and Vice-President of Peru, who have been honored guests in this country, didn't mind being ousted from their Waldorf-Astoria hotel suite to make room for General MacArthur. But they did feel hurt at the lack of confidence implied by the fact that the locks on the doors were changed immediately after they departed. MacArthur was able to recognize at least one Democrat among the Republicans—Sen. Tom Connally of Texas.

Pupils Visit Museum, Cave;

CASTROVILLE—Pupils of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, with their teachers Mrs. Lillian Haby and Jack Wernette, had an all-day outing Wednesday, May 9. The trip was made in the school bus and included a visit to the Cave without a Name at Boerne and the Frontier Museum at Bandera.

The 6th, 7th, 8th, and 9th grades have scheduled an all day trip to Austin this week, weather permitting. They will be accompanied by their teachers, Supt. Hoarce Houser and Mrs. Hermina Sittre.

A crowded house greeted the performers of the "Old Maids Convention". The costumes including the high top shoes of the maids added much to the act. Honors went to the professor, Jack Wernette, who transformed the old maids into "lovely young things" just as they desired. Receipts were over $100.

J. A. THINKS SOLONS MISSED OPPORTUNITY IN LAST MONTH

Editor's note: The Seco Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is still confused, his letter this week reveals.

Dear editor:

I would like to know whatever happened to the Texas Legislature?

As I recall, it was in session and trying to get some California gambler to come to Austin and I guess explain how to improve the game and still keep it on a friendly basis when President Truman fired General MacArthur, and since then I haven't heard a word out of it.

I suppose it's still in session, but the MacArthur fuss has dominated the news so much everybody forgot about Austin and as far as I know they may be just sitting around listenin to the radio themselves.

If you ask me, the Legislature missed a big opportunity. Right when the people's minds was all on Washington was the ideal time to go ahead and balance the state budget in a statemanlike way, vote whatever new taxes was needed, pass any laws they could think of, and adjourn and go home. Wouldn't a person have heard about it till months later?

Why right now I couldn't tell you what the Legislature has done in the last four weeks anymore than I could tell you what it'll do next week. Never again will a group of law makers have such a golden opportunity to legislate like they please.

In regard to the Truman-MacArthur argument, so many words have been spoken on the matter now I'm about played out with it, about bogged down in testimony myself, but I can say this, the old age pension problem would be wiped out completely if every man, when he reached the age of 71 and lost his government job, was given the choice of makin $100,000 a year sellin typewriters or $150,000 a year sellin Hadacol.

Is there anything to the report that Truman is tryin to get them companies to hold the offer open just in case he's available after 1952? I knew there was lots of jobs open these days, but had no idea jobs paying that kind of money was goin beggin. Almost wish I had a job so I could get fired into a higher bracket myself.

Yours faithfully

J. A.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

Here's something Special in Spaciousness

A LOT of folks like the two-door idea, because they feel that tiny tots are safer in the back seat.

But that's no reason why back-seat headroom should be dimensioned for midgets only.

So Buick engineers have done something about it, in the Buick SPECIAL 2-door Sedan pictured here.

They've kept the compactness of over-all length that's important in modern garages.

But they've arched that sturdy steel top to give you he-man headroom—headroom in back as well as headroom in front—that makes a six-footer feel at home.

And they've designed a trunk that has "room for tourists."

Don't ask us how they did it. Come see for yourself.

Slip into those spacious seats—and while you're there, find out why this compact honey is one of the hottest numbers we've seen in years.

Find out how that F-263 valve-in-head Fireball Engine pours out the power and stretches the miles per gallon.

Find out how Buick's exclusive combination of torque-tube drive and coil springs on all four wheels puts big-car steadiness and stability into this nimble performer.

Find out how Dynaflow Drive* takes the strain out of traffic driving—and brings you relaxed to the end of a long day's cross-country driving.

And above all—find out the prices—and how much they'll buy in comfort and convenience. The sooner you see your Buick dealer, the better off you'll be.
